

Resume: Jonathan Gilbert, NCCAOM

Education in Asian Medicine:

Attended the British School of Oriental Therapy and Movement and South-West Surrey School of Shiatsu-Do 1986 – 1988
Diploma in Shiatsu massage

Attended London Academy of Oriental Medicine 1991 – 1995
Completing a diploma in Traditional Oriental Medicine (Acupuncture, Herbal Medicine)

Attended Traditional Medical Institute Saigon, Vietnam 1995 – 1996
Completed training to earn a Diploma from the Institute

Private tuition as an Apprentice with Dr Phouc Huynh 1993 – 2005
Study of Jinkui Yaolue (6 Division) Theory and Practice.

Professional Career:

Founder and President, The Gilbert Clinic, North Bethesda, Maryland 2005 - present
Private practice in London 1995 – 1998
Private practice in Baltimore, Maryland 2000 – 2006
Board certified by NCCAOM in Acupuncture and Herbal Medicine
Examination writer and member of Education Committee, NCCAOM 2003- 2007
Senior consultant TCM University of Maryland Integrative Medicine 2004-5
Lecturer at Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine
Lecturer at University of Maryland School of Medicine

Military career:

Accepted for Officer Training in Royal Air Force Feb. 1988
Commissioned as Pilot Officer (Navigation Branch) Sept. 1988
Resigned Commission Jan 1990

Study of movement and martial arts

Practitioner of Shintaido / Kitaiso School of movement 1982 – 1993
Granted permission to teach from Head Instructor Ken Waight 1988

Study of Ba Gua system of movement 1992 – 1994

Study of Qi Gong technique 1991-1995.